Report Narrative 08-39414

Officer Huck and I (Officer Pappas) observed a Black Camaro parked in front of the 7-11 convenience store at John R and Long Lake. Officers observed three subjects exit the 7-11 and enter into the Camaro. The Camaro backed out of the parking spot and drove south towards the southern parking lot. The Camaro completed a u-turn in the parking lot and stopped next to a Dodge Intrepid (just entered parking lot from John R). After approximately 2-3 minutes the Camaro drove north through the parking lot and entered onto John R without stopping (fail to stop exiting a private drive). The Camaro drove N/B on John R and entered into the Carl's Liquor Store parking lot at John R and Square Lake.

Officers headed north around the building and back south behind the complex. Officers observed the Camaro re-enter onto John R after a brief period of time. The Camaro continued N/B on John R at a high rate of speed and completed a right turn onto Lakeside. The Camaro entered into a cul-de-sac on the North side of Lakeside (failed to use left turn indicator). Officers initiated a traffic stop on Lakeside near Southpoint.

Officer Huck and I made contact with the driver, . Officers observed two passengers in the vehicle with (front passenger) and (rear passenger). Officers determined that the occupants were approximately 17 years of age. I observed a 30 pack of Busch Light Beer Cans between legs. I removed the case of beer (still cold to touch). Officers questioned the occupants about the alcohol. The juveniles initially advised that took the beer from his home. Officers removed the occupants from the vehicle.

stated that purchased the alcohol from a party store. advised that the party store was near John R and Square Lake. advised that they were going to a party on Lakeside. advised that they were not going to drink the alcohol.

Officers questioned about the origin and ownership of the beer. advised that the beer was from his home. Officers further questioned about the beer and admitted that the beer was from a party store. stated that he entered the liquor store on John R at Square Lake (Carl's Liquor Store) and purchased the Busch Light for approximately $20 (cash). advised that the Liquor Store employee failed to ask for his identification. stated that he did not produce a fake ID to purchase the alcohol. described the employee as a late 20's, heavy set w/m with black hair. advised that the employee was possibly Arabic advised that the employee who sold him the beer was alone.

Officers issued citation # 732705 for minor in possession of alcohol. Officers released on scene (juv's no HBD). Officers confiscated the beer and tagged it into evidence (#147717).

Officers attempted to make contact with the employee at Carl's Liquor Store. Officers' investigation found that Chris Konja was working at the Liquor store (information obtained via conversation with employees and patrons of CoffeeNet). I spoke with Carl Konja (co-owner of Carl's Liquor Store) on the telephone and he advised that his brother, Chris Konja, was working all night. Carl advised that his brother was on the way home.

I made contact with Chris Konja via telephone at the Troy P.D. Chris stated that he was working all night at the party store. Chris advised that he was the only employee working at approximately 2230 hrs. I advised Chris that he sold a 30-pack of Busch Light Beer to a minor at approximately 2225 hrs. Chris advised that he did not remember the transaction or the minor. Chris advised that he would be working at the liquor store on 11/15/08 (afternoon shift).

Officers will attempt to make contact with Chris Konja on 11/15/08 LEIN/SOS work is attached. An MIP notification form was completed and mailed to parents. A LCC violation report will be completed.
