Dear Chief Craft,

It is rare that I take pen to paper to bring attention and acknowledge the personal service received from anyone, but I felt it necessary to point out what I thought was, an exceptional act of kindness that Officer Pete Dungjen exhibited in June, 2006 toward me.

I was parked in front of his home, talking to my 88 year old mother in Denver, CO. at 10:00PM. Officer Dungjen & I live in the same subdivision in Troy. I made the call there because of poor cellular reception at my home. He approached my car, identified himself as a Troy Police Officer and asked "if I was alright?"

Being a single woman, I sometimes feel vulnerable and it was with great comfort and relief that Officer Dungjen came to my aid.

Thank you Officer Dungjen for making someone like me, a resident of the community feel safe, protected, and cared about by you.

Sincerely

Ms. Cindy Eisenbraun
