

Oakland County Board of Commissioners

Proclamation

HONORING

THE CITY OF TROY

WHEREAS, the qualities of life upon which we pride ourselves in Oakland County are, in part, the result of the commitment and dedication of the leadership and the citizens in the City of Troy, who have made the city an exemplary community to live; and

WHEREAS, Troy has been selected as one of the 100 Best Small Cities for 2012, in the United States and ranked as the top city in Michigan, rated 26th nationally by Money Magazine. The city was recognized because of its exceptional employment, leisure, schools, safety, cost of living and quality of life; and

WHEREAS, the City of Troy is one of Oakland County's premier communities, incorporated as a township on May 28, 1827, before becoming a city in 1955. Its' history and longstanding community ties have made it one of Oakland County's oldest communities; and

WHEREAS, the City of Troy boasts a population of more than 81,000 people and is known as an outstanding business and technology center. Troy has managed to successfully create a family-friendly environment while attracting businesses to establish a vibrant community; and

WHEREAS, we proudly join with the City of Troy's leaders and residents to recognize its national honor ranking the city as the 26th Best Small City in the country for 2012 by Money Magazine.

NOW THEREFORE I, Michael J. Gingell, Chairperson of the Oakland County Board of Commissioners, together with Commissioners Michael Bosnic, Robert Gosselin, Gary McGillivray and David W. Potts, do hereby proclaim commendation to the City of Troy on its national achievement.*
