Dear Robin:

We are very pleased to inform you that NLC President James Hunt, councilmember of Clarksburg, West Virginia has appointed you Vice Chair of the CityFutures Panel on Democratic Governance for 2006.

Your experience and commitment will bring great credit to our organization and to the efforts of the CityFutures program. Your term begins with the receipt of this letter and concludes with the adjournment of the 2006 Congress of Cities in Reno, Nevada.

The Democratic Governance Panel will meet two times during the year, at the Congressional City Conference in March in Washington, D.C. and at the Congress of Cities Conference in Reno in December. The panel will convene next at the Congressional City Conference in Washington, D.C., March 11-15, 2006.

2006 promises to be an exciting year for the Democratic Governance Panel as it continues to examine issues of Democratic Governance and maintain an institutional agenda to ensure leadership by elected officials for this topic.

For questions or information, please contact Gwen Wright at (202) 626-3037 or wright@nlc.org. We look forward to working with you throughout this year. Again, we are very pleased to have you on NLC's 2006 leadership team.

Very truly yours,

Donald J. Borut
Executive Director
