CAPTAIN

Dear Lieutenant Murphy:

We send our appreciation and gratitude of thanks for your volunteered time of professional services during the 5th Annual Players Wives Fashion Extravaganza held this past February in Troy, Michigan.

Your professional services of providing law enforcement staffing were of great value to us. Our event was a success because of you. In addition, this was an experience rich in excellence of presentation, professionalism of the highest standards from local businesses and city personnel. We appreciate the warm welcome, gracious hospitality we have received and look forward to opened doors of future endeavors.

Warmest Regards,

Angela Allen
