

CITY COUNCIL REPORT

February 19, 2007

TO: Phillip L. Nelson, City Manager
FROM: Charles T. Craft, Chief of Police
SUBJECT: Liquor License Compliance Check

Background:

- Each quarter the police department conducts compliance inspections of all establishments holding a liquor license that allows for the sale of alcoholic beverages to the public.
- The Directed Patrol Unit of the Police Department recently completed the compliance testing of 109 liquor license holders in the City of Troy.
- The tests were conducted pursuant to Police Department policy utilizing five (5) Student Enforcement Aides.
- Nino Salvaggio, 6935 Rochester Road was the only business in violation and was cited for the sale of an alcoholic beverage to minor.

Financial Considerations:

- N/A

Legal Considerations:

- The cited business was issued the applicable LCC and City Ordinance violations.
- The cited business will be scheduled to appear at the next City Council Liquor Violation Review meeting.
- Businesses passing the inspection will receive a certificate indicating such.

Policy Considerations:

- City Goal #1 - "Enhance the livability and safety of the community",