Dear Mr. Nelson,

On behalf of the City of Farmington Hills, we would like to extend our thanks to you and your organization for participating in FARMEX II.

This large-scale exercise provided unique hands-on training that helped prepare our local first responders to handle a real emergency. Among the participants were over 50 city, county, state, and federal agencies and close to 700 volunteers. The City of Farmington Hills learned many valuable lessons on our response procedures and how important interaction between agencies truly is.

By supporting our efforts, you have helped ensure that Farmington Hills and other local communities and organizations are among the best-prepared in the state to handle an emergency.

We hope that your agency learned many lessons from the exercise that resulted in productive change. Thank you again for your support and involvement in FARMEX II.

Cordially,
