The political landscape has changed tremendously in Lansing and Washington D.C. What does that mean for you and your community? We'll break it all down for you during the Michigan Municipal League's Capital Conference April 5-6, at the Lansing Center in Lansing. This conference is your chance to share ideas and solutions with the League's legislative team and get the latest on what's happening in the state and federal legislatures relative to Michigan municipalities. Key topics on our action-packed agenda include solving the budget deficit, transportation funding, reform proposals, and the latest economic development incentives.

Visit cc.mml.org for more information!

Cost:

Member communities, $185

Nonmember communities, $255
