Dear Chief Craft:

I just want to take a minute of your time to thank Detective James Mork of your department for his efforts.

We control a website (Ashleysdream.org) that offers scholarships to young people across America. This site is visited by over 300,000 18 year-olds every year. We have a guestbook that allows individuals to express their thoughts.

This past spring, the guestbook was infiltrated by a pornography company promoting free porn at the click of a button. Unable to stop it, I turned to your department for help. Detective Mork tracked down the parties involved and narrowed down the I.P. addresses. While he wasn't able to get down to the exact location due to the veils of international I.P. addresses, he was able to get me in touch with the powers to be and have the porn removed from the site.

We take great pride in our website, and we can't thank the TPD enough for their help in removing this embarrassing material from something so personal.

Thanks again, and please pass on our thanks to Detective Mork!

Regards,

David J. Easterbrook
